111	PRABU RADHAKRISHNAN Thideerapuram, Meladhanur Village, Kodiyam Post, Tindivanam Taluk,Pin:60420	Context: The land parcel is acquired by Dalit or scheduled community or Harijan Welfare Department of respective state. The department has appropriately compensated the erstwhile owner, and there are no hindrances posed by the previous landowner or any other authority, including the Gram Panchayat. Nevertheless, an extensive delay has transpired in updating village records, marking site boundaries, and marking individual plot extents, leading to beneficiaries being unable to construct or utilize the property for over 20 years. Information Sought: Court Cases: Detailed information on court cases related to the undue delay in handing over possession of free house site plots to Dalit or Scheduled community or Adi Diravidar beneficiaries under the Tamil Nadu Acquisition of Land for Harijan Welfare Schemes Act, 1978, or a similar act in any other state. However, information pertaining to cases caused by the erstwhile landowners is excluded. Court Orders: Copies of court orders in cases where delays in handing over possession were adjudicated, and the delay was caused by the negligence of duties by the government officers concerned. Any documentation, orders, or judgments related to cases involving delays in handing over possession of land to Adi Diravidar or Dalit or Scheduled community beneficiaries. Specify the sections or provisions of the relevant land acquisition acts under which compensation for delayed possession has been awarded. This request is made with the explicit intention of seeking information on Dalit or Scheduled or Adi Diravidar beneficiaries who have faced undue delays in obtaining possession of their allotted plots across various states in India. I am willing to bear any fees or charges associated with obtaining this information and request that the details be provided within the stipulated time frame mandated by the Right to Information Act, 2005.
